

COVID-19

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – NSW PARTICIPANTS

RACING NSW ROAD MAP

UPDATED 24 November 2021

Racing NSW has conducted a review of its COVID-19 policies having regard to the current situation in NSW and has made the following amendments to its COVID-19 policy.

JOCKEYS

- Jockey zones were removed on 4 November 2021 allowing jockeys to ride at any race meeting within NSW.
- All jockeys and apprentices may ride trackwork and barrier trials.
- Apprentice jockeys may undertake stable duties.
- Jockeys who are fully vaccinated and ride in the Greater Sydney Area are no longer required to obtain a PCR test. Rapid testing at race meetings will cease on 1 December 2021.
- Jockeys not fully vaccinated that live in Greater Sydney who are attending race meetings in regional NSW will need to continue to obtain a twice weekly PCR test and provide the negative results to the Stewards.
- Effective 1 December 2021, Jockeys' rooms densities will be reduced from one person per 4 square metres to one person per 2 square metres, and segregation in separate rooms not required if the jockeys' room complies with the 2 square metre density limits.

FACE MASKS (Essential Personnel)

The wearing of N95 face masks is only mandatory when indoors on a racecourse or licensed premises. (Working in stables is not considered to be indoors).

PCR & RAPID COVID-19 TESTING

Fully Vaccinated – Effective 1 December 2021, fully vaccinated Essential Personnel who attend Randwick, Rosehill, Warwick Farm, Kembla Grange and Newcastle racecourses will no longer be required to undertake a weekly PCR or RAPID COVID-19 test.

Not Fully Vaccinated - Any Essential Personnel who are not fully vaccinated that attend Randwick, Rosehill, Warwick Farm, Kembla Grange and Newcastle racecourses will be required to continue to undertake a weekly PCR COVID-19 test. Rapid testing will no longer be required.

REGIONAL TRAVEL – PCR TESTING

Fully Vaccinated - Essential Personnel who reside in Greater Sydney and who are fully vaccinated do not require a PCR COVID-19 test to travel from Greater Sydney to regional race meetings.

Fully Vaccinated – Essential Personnel who reside outside Greater Sydney and who are fully vaccinated do not required a PCR COVID-19 test when returning to their regional base after attending the Greater Sydney Area.

Not Fully Vaccinated - Essential Personnel who reside in Greater Sydney and who are not fully vaccinated must continue to have a negative PCR COVID-19 test result within the last 7 days to travel from Greater Sydney to regional race meetings.

Not Fully Vaccinated – Essential Personnel who reside outside Greater Sydney and who are not fully vaccinated must continue to obtain a negative PCR COVID-19 test prior to attending a racecourse or licensed premises when returning to their regional base after attending the Greater Sydney Area.

With the removal of Rapid and PCR testing, Essential Personnel are reminded of the importance that they must continue to monitor for symptoms of COVID-19. If they have symptoms, they must obtain a COVID-19 PCR test and self isolate (including not attending a racecourse or licensed premises) until they receive a negative result. Any Essential Personnel who display COVID-19 symptoms and obtain a COVID-19 PCR test must advise Racing NSW Stewards of same and provide the results of the negative COVID-19 test to Racing NSW Stewards prior to attending a NSW racecourse or licensed premises.

PUBLIC HEALTH ORDERS

Racing NSW requires all participants to continue to comply with Racing NSW policies and protocols and all NSW Health Orders detail below.

<https://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Infectious/covid-19/Pages/public-health-orders.aspx>

Not Fully Vaccinated – NSW Government restrictions – Essential Personnel throughout NSW who are not fully vaccinated are also reminded that, under the NSW Government Public Health Orders, they are not permitted to:

- Attend a large number of premises including hospitality venues (restaurants, cafes, pubs) other than to collect takeaway, gyms, spas, entertainment facilities (cinemas, theatres, music and concert halls), nightclubs, public swimming pools, hairdressers, tattoo parlours, massage parlours, recreation facilities (indoors), retail premises (other than critical retail premises), auction houses, betting agencies;
- Visit other households or have visitors at their home (this includes not visiting family members who are not household members or having them visit);
- Take a holiday or undertake recreation outside the Local Government Area where they reside;
- Except for the purposes of work, travel in a vehicle with a person other than a household member.

RACE MEETINGS AND RACE CLUBS

Crowds are restricted to 1 person per 2 square metres, who must adhere to mandatory mask wearing for indoor spaces and all other NSW Government Public Health Order requirements.

For large scale race meetings of metropolitan status race clubs will need to ensure all persons, including Essential Personnel attending, are fully vaccinated.

Race clubs are required by Racing NSW to put in place a COVID-19 Safety Plan which includes clear separation between restricted jockeys/official's zones and other attendees at the race meeting. The separation of Essential Personnel (other than jockeys/officials zone) is no longer required. Racing NSW will review its policies in respect to jockey/official zones on 15 December 2021.

Fully Vaccinated – Essential Personnel and Owners/Patrons who are fully vaccinated are permitted to interact/socialise with each other on raceday.

Not Fully Vaccinated – Essential Personnel who are not fully vaccinated are not permitted to interact/socialise with Owners/Patrons on raceday.

Race clubs are to present their COVID-19 Safety and Operational plans detailing this separation to Racing NSW prior to a race meeting being conducted.

In addition to these restrictions race clubs must continue to.

- Establish clear and precise conditions of entry to the racecourse.
- Monitor entrances to ensure mandatory QR code in on entry by all persons attending the racecourse.
- Sufficient signage to ensure patrons who are symptomatic or who are close or casual contacts do not enter the racecourse.
- Sufficient signage to ensure patrons are aware of the social distancing requirements.
- Installation of hand sanitising stations.
- Employment of cleaners wiping down high traffic areas and touch points.
- Use of separate saddle cloths and strappers bibs for each race as per Racing NSW minimum standards.
- Ensure that all indoor spaces comply with the 1 person per 2 square metre orders and mandatory mask wearing.
- The COVID-19 Safety Plan will clearly establish strategies developed by the race club that ensure social distancing across the venue.

Race clubs are permitted to conduct non-raceday functions and to allow contractors to attend the racecourse on non-racedays without the approval of Racing NSW, subject to a COVID Safety Plan and risk mitigation strategy being prepared by the Club.

INTERSTATE TRAVEL

Victoria

Having considered the continuing high numbers of COVID-19 in Victoria, Essential Personnel (jockeys, trainers, stablehands, Officials and Service Providers) who reside in or have been to Victoria must adhere to the following policies prior to attending a NSW racecourse or licensed premises (in addition to any requirements under the NSW Government Public Health Orders), unless exempted by Racing NSW.

- Victorian Places of High Concern or Casual Contact – Any person who has been in a place of high concern or casual contact at the link below, must not attend a NSW racecourse or licensed premises until Racing NSW has provided its approval, following that person making contact with Racing NSW Stewards and providing details of such contact. Racing NSW Stewards will provide details of requirements before attending a NSW racecourse or licensed premises.
