3. Eligibility

Open to horses trained in Country NSW as at the eligibility date.

Eligibility Date – 10am 18 July 2018.

To contest The Kosciuszko in 2018 horses must legitimately be under the care of a NSW country trainer with a current stable return lodged on or before 10am 18 July 2018, being the eligibility date. The lodgement date of the stable return will be the sole determinant of the eligibility date.

For the avoidance of doubt, horses trained in country regions outside of NSW and not in accordance with the definition of a country area in the Racing NSW Local Rules of Racing, are not eligible to compete.

Horses trained by a trainer that is the holder of a metropolitan, provincial or interstate licence are not eligible to compete. Horses with a stable return or that are trained by a trainer that holds a licence to train at Canberra or the Australian Capital Territory are not eligible to compete.

Horses transferred to a country stable after the eligibility date are not eligible to contest The Kosciuszko.

Dual Training Locations

Horses trained by a trainer who holds a licence to train at a designated country racing region in NSW and at a provincial, metropolitan, Canberra or interstate racecourse are not eligible to contest The Kosciuszko.

Location and Training of Horses

While in training, from the eligibility date, the horse must remain located at the trainer's nominated training location and under the care of the nominated trainer. A horse that is spelled during the eligibility period must have a stable return lodged advising the location of the horse. The spelling of a horse will not render the horse ineligible for The Kosciuszko, provided it is immediately returned to the original nominated trainer or other eligible country trainer when returning from the spell and the stable return amended accordingly.

Location of Horse Prior to The Kosciuszko

All horses declared in the final field (including emergencies) may be relocated to a metropolitan or provincial region on or after Monday 8 October 2018. Horses located in the metropolitan area prior to 8 October 2018 and continuously thereafter until the running of The Kosciuszko will require the express written permission of Racing NSW. In the absence of such express written permission, a horse that is found to be located in a metropolitan or provincial region prior to Monday 8 October 2018, becomes ineligible to compete in The Kosciuszko.

Racing NSW the Sole Judge of Eligibility

Racing NSW will be the sole judge to determine eligibility to compete in The Kosciuszko.

5. NOMINATION AND ACCEPTANCE

The twelve (12) prize winners (Slot Holders) of The Kosciuszko Sweep Promotion competition are entitled to enter a horse in The Kosciuszko.

Final Declarations are made by the Slot Holders or their nominated representatives, based on an acknowledged agreement between parties as appropriate.

FINAL DECLARATIONS – Close by 9am on Wednesday, 10th October 2018.

6. DECLARATION OF EMERGENCIES AND SCRATCHINGS

Up to four emergency runners may be declared for The Kosciuszko. Emergencies will be listed in order of entry.

If Slot Holder's horse is scratched before 7.30am on the day of The Kosciuszko:

- with a certified veterinary certificate approved by Racing NSW and confirmed by Racing NSW's industry veterinarian, as determined by Racing NSW in its absolute discretion, then the Slot Holder will be permitted to select one of the available emergency horses to run in The Kosciuszko on the terms and conditions set out in Schedule A – Terms and conditions in respect of Scratchings and Substitution of Emergency Horse(s). If there is no emergency horse available, the Slot Holder will receive last place prizemoney;
- without a veterinary certificate approved by Racing NSW and confirmed by Racing NSW's industry veterinarian, as determined by Racing NSW in its absolute discretion, then the Slot Holder will not be entitled to a runner in The Kosciuszko and the Slot Holder will forfeit the right to any prizemoney.

If Slot Holder's horse is scratched after 7.30am on the day of the The Kosciuszko:

- with a certified veterinary certificate approved by Racing NSW and confirmed by Racing NSW's industry veterinarian, as determined by Racing NSW in its absolute discretion, then the Slot Holder will not be entitled to a runner in The Kosciuszko and will receive last place prizemoney;
- without a veterinary certificate approved by Racing NSW and confirmed by Racing NSW's industry veterinarian, as determined by Racing NSW in its absolute discretion, then the Slot Holder will not be entitled to a runner in The Kosciuszko and the Slot Holder will forfeit the right to any prizemoney.

If Racing NSW receives a Racing NSW veterinary report after Final Declarations time and before 7.30am on the day of The Kosciuszko that a particular horse is not, or cannot reasonably be expected to be, fit to compete in The Kosciuszko then Racing NSW under the Rules of Racing may scratch the horse and the provisions above will then apply as if the horse was scratched with a certified veterinary certificate approved by Racing NSW.

Where an emergency runner obtains a run in The Kosciuszko, prizemoney will be determined in accordance with Schedule A – Terms and conditions in respect of Scratchings and Substitution of Emergency Horse(s).

7. GENERAL MATTERS

- 7.1 The Kosciuszko will be conducted under the Rules of Racing, being the Australian Rules of Racing and Racing NSW's Local Rules of Racing, a copy of which is available from Racing NSW's website.
- 7.2 Racing NSW may at its absolute discretion reject the declaration by a Slot Holder of a horse that is not regarded as being of sufficient standing or quality to contest The Kosciuszko and horses with a country Benchmark of 60 and below are ineligible.
- 7.3 The Kosciuszko is scheduled to be run on Saturday 13 October 2018 at Royal Randwick Racecourse, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. However, Racing NSW may, in its absolute discretion, run The Kosciuszko at any Sydney metropolitan racecourse at another time, including if there is a force majeure event.
- 7.4 Racing NSW may refuse the nomination and/or acceptance of any horse in The Kosciuszko for any reason permissible under the Rules of Racing. Further, in the event that the nomination and/or acceptance of a horse in The Kosciuszko is refused, or the horse is scratched or disqualified under the Rules of Racing, then the Rules of Racing apply in respect of any prizemoney.
- 7.5 Nominations for The Kosciuszko shall only be received on condition that the Australian Rules of Racing and Racing NSW's Local Rules of Racing now or hereafter in force shall be binding in all respects and subject to any other conditions imposed by Racing NSW.

- 7.6 Racing NSW reserves the right to make from time to time any alteration or modification to the conditions governing The Kosciuszko, including but not limited to the date and time for receiving final declarations. The right to alter the conditions of The Kosciuszko is at the absolute discretion of Racing NSW.

Racing NSW reserves the right to cancel The Kosciuszko, at its absolute discretion.

- 7.7 The Slot Holder and the owners of any horse entered in The Kosciuszko Licensee expressly and irrevocably assigns exclusively to Racing NSW all intellectual property, media rights and sponsorship rights in connection with the promotion of The Kosciuszko, the running of The Kosciuszko and post-race coverage of The Kosciuszko including, without limitation, the name and likeness of the Slot Holder and the owners of any horse entered in The Kosciuszko, and of jockeys, trainers, colours, logos, silks and any other associated or identifying characteristics, as well as any other matter relating to the participation of the horse in The Kosciuszko. Promotion by Racing NSW may include, without limitation, televising, broadcasting and/or recording in any manner of The Kosciuszko and the activities incident to them, and broadcasting (on any platform including digital platforms), exhibiting and/or exploiting the same by any means now or hereafter including, without limitation, licensing such rights to others for uses approved by Racing NSW. The Slot Holder and the owners of any horse entered in The Kosciuszko hereby expressly, irrevocably and perpetually waives on its behalf and on behalf of its agents and employees (including the trainers and jockeys) any and all rights it may have in connection with any matter referred to in this clause. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes any such rights within Australia and internationally. Further, the Slot Holder and the owners of any horse entered in The Kosciuszko expressly agree to the terms and conditions of the Privacy Policies of Racing NSW as published from time to time and expressly agrees to the secondary disclosure of their identity for any purpose related to The Kosciuszko, including but not limited to marketing or promotion of The Kosciuszko and inclusion on any register of Slot Holders maintained by Racing NSW.

Schedule A – Terms and conditions in respect of Scratchings and Substitution of Emergency Horse(s)
