The official winners, second and third placed horses of qualifying races for the Big Dance and otherwise balloted or ineligible for the Big Dance or eliminated as emergencies. Other than eliminated emergencies, horses scratched from the Big Dance may not contest the Little Dance.

Horses may contest multiple qualifying races and are not restricted from contesting these races by virtue of winning an earlier qualifying race.

At its absolute discretion, Racing NSW may eliminate, add or substitute qualifying races or conditions.

4. Order of Entry and Ballot Conditions

Should it become necessary to reduce the number of acceptors to determine the final field and emergencies, the excess horses shall be eliminated:

- commencing with the third placed horses from the qualifying races that have not otherwise won or ran second in another of the qualifying races; then

- the second placed horses from the qualifying races that have not otherwise won another of the qualifying races; then
- the lowest NSW Benchmark Handicap Rating at final acceptances shall be the first eliminated, this procedure will continue until the field limit is reached.
- if benchmarks are equal, the place in the field will be selected by the Racing NSW Handicapping Panel.

5. Nomination and Acceptance

Nominations

Horses will automatically be nominated based the results of qualifying races.
