Rider's Agent
(Signature):

Today's Date:

AR 119 Engagements for apprentice jockeys to be approved by master

All engagements for an apprentice jockey to ride in races must be approved by his or her master or that master's authorised representative.

AR 120 Rider's agents

- (1) A person must not act in the capacity of rider's agent unless the person has been licensed by a PRA to do so.
- (2) A person licensed under the Rules in another capacity cannot also be licensed as a rider's agent, except that:
 - (a) a licensed or registered stablehand can also be licensed as a rider's agent; or
 - (b) a PRA in its discretion may permit that to occur.
- (3) A jockey, apprentice jockey or the master of an apprentice jockey must not authorise any person to be his or her rider's agent unless that person has been licensed by a PRA as a rider's agent.
- (4) A rider's agent:
 - (a) must not, without the permission of the Stewards, enter any restricted area on a racecourse on race day;

- (b) who breaches subrule (a) may be removed from that area by order of the Stewards.
(5) A PRA must publish a list of the persons it has licensed as rider's agents.

AR 237 Prohibition on persons laying horses

- (1) A trainer must not lay any horse that is either under the trainer's care, control or supervision, or has been at any time in the preceding 21 days.
(2) A person employed by a trainer in connection with the training or care of horses must not lay any horse under the care, control or supervision of the trainer for whom the person is or was employed while employed and for a period of 21 days after ceasing to be employed.
(3) An owner or nominator must not lay any horse that is or may be entered by that owner or nominator or on that person's behalf, provided that a bookmaker may lay a horse in accordance with the bookmaker's licence.
(4) A rider's agent must not lay any horse to be ridden by a rider for whom that person is an agent.
(5) A person who has provided a service/s connected with the keeping, training or racing of a horse must not lay that horse within 21 days of last providing that service.
(6) A person must not offer an inducement to a participant in racing with the intention of profiting from a horse not participating in an event to the best of its ability.
(7) In circumstances where it is a breach of this rule for a person to lay a horse, it is also a breach of this rule for that person to:
(a) have a horse laid on his or her behalf; or
(b) receive any money or other valuable consideration in any way connected with the laying of the horse by another person.

LR71A - Except with the written permission of Racing NSW, any rider's agent who:

- (a) bets, has an interest in a bet, or facilitates a bet; or

(b) provides either directly or indirectly to any person for any direct or indirect financial or other benefit (regardless of whether such benefit materialises) any tip, or any other information or advice that may influence any person to bet, on any NSW race in which a rider whom the rider's agent represents (in accordance with AR1) is engaged to ride, commits an offence and may be penalised. For the purposes of this rule, a bet includes a lay bet.

LR 110A.

- (1) A person who possesses inside information in connection with a horse that is entered in a race can be penalised if the person:
(a) in the case of a bookmaker, accepts a bet on the subject horse;
(b) has a lay bet or an interest in a lay bet on the subject horse and/or has a bet or an interest in a bet on another horse in the subject race;
(c) encourages another person to have a lay bet or an interest in a lay bet on the subject horse and/or to have a bet or an interest in a bet on another horse in the subject race; or
(d) communicates the information, directly or indirectly, to any person who the first person knows or ought reasonably to know would or would be likely to bet on the race in which the horse is to run, provided that it is not an offence to:
(i) make the information publicly available; or
(ii) communicate the information to the horse's owner, trainer, trainer's representative or a stable employee or service provider engaged by the trainer or owner and actively and necessarily involved in the care or management of the subject horse.
- (2) For the purposes of this rule:
(a) Information is "inside information" about a horse if:
(i) it is not publicly available; and
(ii) it would or would be likely to influence persons who commonly bet in deciding whether or not to bet on the horse or making any other betting decision in respect of a race in which the horse is to be run.
(b) Information is "publicly available" if:
(i) it consists of a matter that is readily observable or known by the public;
(ii) it has been made known in a manner that would or could bring it to the attention of the public; or
(iii) it consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information referred to in paragraph (i) or (ii).
(c) "Lay" has the meaning given to that term in AR175B(7). [Rule added 10.7.13]

LR 110B

(1) A trainer, jockey, stablehand or any other person engaged or employed in the training or racing of thoroughbred horses must not:

- (a) enter into an arrangement, agreement or understanding with a wagering operator or a person representing a wagering operator that involves that wagering operator referring to, basing on or seeking to link to any advertising, commentary or promotions with that person;
- (b) enter into an arrangement, agreement or understanding with a wagering operator or a person representing a wagering operator that confers special privileges or concessions which are prejudicial to the image of racing;
- (c) accept any gift or inducement that might impair that person's judgment or be perceived to be a conflict of interest, bribe or inappropriate gift;
- (d) prefer the interests of one owner or group of owners to the interests of another owner or group of owners in the care or management of horses owned by different owners;
- (e) put that person's secondary interest before or above his or her primary interest; or
- (f) be influenced by his or her secondary interest over his or her primary interest.

(2) For the purposes of this rule:

(a) a "primary interest" is the activity for which the person holds a licence or permit from Racing NSW or is engaged in or associated with thoroughbred racing; and

(b) a "secondary interest" is:

- i. any material reward, gift, favour or benefit in kind not directly arising from or in addition to the primary interest;
- ii. any favour for any immediate family member or other person with whom the person has a close professional or personal relationship.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, an owner who holds a financial interest in the horse only and does not play any active role in the training or racing of the horse is not subject to sub-rule (1).

(4) A bookmaker is not to refer to, base on or seek to link to any advertising, commentary or promotions in any form of media including social media to a family member or other person with whom the person has a close personal or professional relationship engaged in or associated with the training or racing of thoroughbred horses, other than in circumstances where such reference is in the normal course of the bookmaker's wagering operations. [rule added 10.7.13]
