

AMAZING GROUP OF FORMER JOCKEYS REUNITE

NSW Jockeys Association organised the inaugural 'Jockeys Reunion Day' on Saturday 3 August with the group meeting at the Old Jockeys Room for a day out and plenty of reminiscing.

Many continue to work in the industry they love - there are Group One-winning jockeys, former country and provincial riders, many are now (or were) trainers, one is a Sky Racing presenter, a former steward, some are on appeal panels and there's a successful saddlery business owner.

It was literally the 'who's who' of NSW jockeys and what a mighty afternoon they enjoyed.

"We had a blessing and a minute's silence, before the former jockeys mingled with current jockeys," said Tony Crisafi, Chief Executive Officer of NSW Jockeys Association.

"We were over the moon with the number of riders that attended and no doubt there were plenty of stories told."

Following lists the incredible line-up of 57 former jockeys that headed out to headquarters on a perfect winter's afternoon: -
